

From The Concord Monitor, Concord, Merrimack, NH, published July 9, 2010

Raymah V. (Morrill) Hoyt, 86, of Penacook died Monday, July 5, 2010, at Concord Hospital.

Born in Concord, the daughter of John and Isabelle (Call) Morrill, she was a lifelong resident of Penacook, attending Penacook High School and graduating with the Class of 1941. After high school, Mrs. Hoyt attended and graduated from the Concord Business School in 1942.

She worked as a secretary for 33 years in the president's office for Concord National Bank before her retirement in 1978.

Raymah loved Bretton Woods in her youth and took up skiing later in her middle adulthood. She also enjoyed spending time with her husband, Douglas, traveling and boating on Lake Winnepesaukee.

Raymah is survived by her husband of 57 years, Douglas Hoyt of Penacook; her brother, David Morrill and his wife, Edwina, of Penacook; and many nieces and nephews.

Calling hours will be held tomorrow from noon to 2 p.m. at Wendell J. Butt Funeral Home, 42 Washington St., Penacook.

Funeral services will be held immediately following calling hours at 2 p.m. at the funeral home.

Interment will follow at Woodlawn Cemetery in Penacook.
